

BUD KING GUERRERO 3-PEATS, SANTOS TAKES MAIDEN PRINCE TITLE

Sunday, April 24, 2010 – CENTRAL LANES BOWLING CENTER, Tamuning, Guam

Keith Guerrero disposed of Manny Tagle 210-194 in the April edition of the Budweiser King of the Lanes finals to become the first bowler to earn a three-peat. Guerrero took control early in the game and never looked back as Tagle was unable to break the chain of titles claimed by the top seed. Tagle however needed a string of strikes in the tenth frame to win the match but a stubborn nine pin in first ball of the tenth frame sealed the title for Guerrero.

In the semi-final top seed Guerrero escaped a tight battle with JD Castro as Castro took the early lead. Guerrero then began stringing strikes from the 6th frame to close out the match with Castro 234-218. 2nd seed Tagle decimated Ray Manibusan in the other semi-final match 213 to 147.

Castro got the better of Felymar Mandapat in the quarter final round 239-205 while Manibusan slipped past Jay Leon Guerrero on two open frames 184-178 to advance to the semis.

Guerrero led all qualifiers with a 1336 total on games of 201, 224, 223, 257, 226 and 205 followed by Tagle 1306, Manibusan 1210, Leon Guerrero 1180, Mandapat 1170, Castro 1169, Javier 1136, Godoy 1131, Bowers 1124 and Zialcita rounded off the top ten with a 1112 total.

In the Prince of the Lanes battle Chris Santos abused Shellee Javier rolling a 198 game to 133 as he controlled the game from the onset.

In the semi-final match Santos ousted top seed Jayson Viray 180 to 158 while Javier outbowled Su Jung Choi 171 to 151 which set up the finals match up.

Viray led the Prince competitors with a 1233 total including 102 pins of handicap followed by Javier 1223 (114), Jung 1207 (342), Cherrylyn Catbagan 1199 (90), Inn Park 1191 (78), Eu-Ju Park 1166 (216), Santos 1156 (270), Su Jung Choi 1129 (150), Arlene Taitague 1128 (126), and Maddison Willis rounded off the top ten with a 1114 total on 150 pins of handicap.

CATBAGAN NABS APRIL SENIOR BOWLER TITLE

It was definitely no April Fools joke when it was announced that Norison Catbagan was the winner of the Senior Bowler of the Lanes tournament for April Sunday afternoon at Central Lanes.

The 50 something senior bowler averaged 212 in the qualifying rounds to take the top seed alongside Rudy Palaganas, Ramon Bilon, and Ray Manibusan drawing first round byes in the shoot-out rounds.

In the first shoot-out bracket, January champion Jhun Viray took the 3-way match over fellow seniors Mary Pangelinan (8th seed) and 10th seeded Ben San Agustin with a 211 (+11 handicap) score. In the other shoot-out bracket, 5th seed Joe Mafnas ran away with a 216 (+14 handicap) win over 6th seed Art Gatmen and 7th seed March champion Kin Sablan.

The lane conditions tightened up in the quarterfinals as 4th seed Manibusan came away with a narrow 171-143 (+11) game over Viray. In the other quarterfinal Mafnas outgunned 4th seed Bilon with a 238 (+14) game to advance to the semifinals.

In the semi-finals momentum stayed with Mafnas as he upset 2nd seed Palaganas to get to the finals while Catbagan took a close 179 to 162 victory including handicap over Manibusan to advance to the finals against Mafnas.

But it was then that Catbagan turned up the heat and strung several strikes en route to a 248 to 140 victory and his signature on the Champions' bowling pin alongside the signatures of the previous monthly winners and the defending champion for the Senior Bowler of the Lanes.
