BISHOP EARNS MAIDEN KING TITLE, ERSANDO GRABS BACK TO BACK PRINCE TITLES

Top seed Manny Tagle chopped a 5-9 combination in the 8th frame after a turkey that opened the door for second seed Tyler Bishop who took full advantage of the opportunity and cruised to a 250-189 victory earning his first monthly Budweiser King of the Lanes title. Bishop closed the match with eight strikes in a row to engrave his position into the yearend grand finals. Tagle ousted last month's King of the Lanes Champion Gavin Baker with a 223-198 outing. Torre Nips Ponce for May Senior Bowler Title

Fifth seed Manny Torre took advantage of 2nd seed Roland Ponce's split in the 10th frame to eke out a 206 to 193 victory with handicap and become May Senior Bowler of the Month.

The short light oil pattern kept the scores down during the 6 game qualifier with Bal Perez taking the top seed again as he did in April going into the top ten roll-offs. 8th seed Buddy Saludo rolled past 9th seed Rudy Palaganas and 10th seed Kin Sablan. In the second bracket, Torre began his title run with a win over 6th seed Nestor Valencia and 7th seed Ray Manibusan.

3rd seed Terry Roberto stopped Saludo in round 2 while Torre was victorious over 4th seed Jhun Viray in the second bracket.
